Dear Aunt, I seem to think of you, so for the past few days, I thought I would write. I am well, & out here in this west country, by myself - a new place.
I like this place, & country. I do hope you are all well, & I do want to hear from you - I want to know how you all, & all of you. How I would like to see you all. My folks in Tong, were all well the last letter, except Lazel, he is not so stout since the horse fell down with him. They are going to sell out if they don't come up at this way, both

I am single yet. Some corn & potatoes, & gardens. Cattle are living on grass now. We have had some nice showers, but not too much, as I suppose you have.

Please write me a good long letter & I will write again. Tell father to write too. Tell me all the news about the folks there, for I havn't heard from them for some years. Good-by!
